

Please do not vote to relax the rules on media ownership. People rely on the media for information and there is already a dearth in the number of diverse voices and perspectives available.